Tribute from Tammy Miller

Relation: Daughter

Dad embodied the spirit of adventure, his love for fishing and the great outdoors was infectious. But above all, his heart belonged to his family. As a father, grandfather, brother, and husband, he was simply unparalleled. His absence leaves an unfathomable void in our lives, one that seems impossible to fill. Yet, amidst the profound grief, we find solace in the memories he etched into our hearts.

We pledge to honor his legacy by embracing life with the same joy and zest that defined him. For Dad wouldn't have wanted tears to cloud the skies of our days; he would have wished for laughter to echo through the halls of our home.

Thank you, Dad, for every moment of love, guidance, and warmth you bestowed upon us. As your daughter, I am endlessly grateful for the privilege of being a part of your remarkable journey. In your presence, I found immeasurable fortune, and in your absence, I feel the weight of loss. But amidst it all, I remain the luckiest daughter in the world, blessed to have been loved by you.

Tribute from Candy Hamilton

Relation: I was a close friend of the family.

I would like to send my condolences to Jims family and friends. You were indeed blessed with a great husband, father, uncle, grandfather and his many friends. His love was felt by all who knew him. I have also been incredibly lucky to have been part of his life. I felt his love in all the hugs and laughter we shared.

I feel Jim and Vi made this world a better place for a lot of people, their kindness and caring will always be remembered. I will remember him as a special person in my life who I will miss dearly.
